

Tips for Students on Remembrance Day Poster and Literary Contest

Poster (Black & White and Colour)

- Review rules and regulations to make sure that you meet the requirements
- Make sure that Canadian National Symbols are used.
- Make sure your work is within the size requirements
- Work on canvas with not be accepted
- Make sure that Black and White posters have no colours in the posters or they will be considered a Colour Poster
- Please included your name & school on the back side of your work
- Make sure that your work is historically accurate in its presentation.

Note: Our Canadian Flag came into use in 1965. Before that the Red Ensign was in use.

- The three versions of the Red Ensign that were used:

Literary

- Review rules and regulations to make sure that you meet the requirements
- For poems and essays, make sure to check spelling and grammar. Also check word count to make sure you are within the limit.
- Make certain your poem or essay is from your heart, as these have the greatest chance to advance in the contest.
- If you can, please type your poems or essay, to help the judges
- Please included your name & school on the back of your work